Office Hours	Monday- Friday: 3:00 pm – 6:00 pm.

Pre-Requisites:

Basic knowledge of Windows/Mac operating system; web browsing; Power Point; robust/high-speed Internet connection.

Course Description:

This course introduces students to the issues and opportunities related to soil and water quality in urban systems. This is a combination of synchronous and asynchronous lectures and chats, quizzes, assignments, and online discussions through which students will learn and discuss consequences of population growth on soil and water systems in urban areas. Graduate students must complete a special project and present via online to receive graduate level credits for this class.

Course Core Objectives:

1. Understand the consequences of population growth and urbanization.
2. Learn about the urban and anthropogenic impacts on soil and water systems.
3. Understand the various issues related to urban contaminants (toxic metals, organic compounds).
4. Learn about the urban agriculture and the opportunities and challenges in growing food in urban areas.
5. Understand the problems caused by urban wastewater and urban stormwater on water quality in urban systems.
6. Learn about the behavior of nutrients (nitrogen, phosphorus) in urban soil and waters.
7. Understand the various green infrastructure and new tools available to manage urban stormwater runoff pollutants and protect soil and water quality in urban areas.

Textbook:

No formal textbook.

All the reading materials (book chapters, journal articles) will be made available each week through the course management system.

Course Format:

The content of this course is taught exclusively online. There will be NO on campus instruction for this course. Students are expected to view all appropriate recorded lectures, read any supplemental readings, and complete weekly quiz PRIOR to the weekly chat session on Monday evenings from 8:30 to 10:00 pm. The chat session will be an interactive review of the week's lectures and readings with instructors leading discussion of topics. All content is provided for students on the course website and chats will be administered via Adobe Connect ®.

Attendance, Late Assignments, and Make-up Exam Policy:

Weekly chat attendance via the Adobe Chat forum is required. Attendance is based on the student's confirmation of completion of weekly materials and submission of weekly assignment. Any attendance issues must be arranged with your instructor at least one business day prior to absence.

Late quizzes are accepted only with a valid reason. Quizzes submitted after the due date and time (Mondays, 6 PM) will not be graded and a 0 grade assessed for that assignment. Make-up exam may be given in extreme circumstances, as determined on a case by case basis by instructor.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments and other work are consistent with university policies that can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

Academic Honesty:

As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity." You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

It is assumed that you will complete all work independently in each course unless the instructor provides explicit permission for you to collaborate on course tasks (e.g. assignments, papers, quizzes, exams). Furthermore, as part of your obligation to uphold the Honor Code, you should report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For more information regarding the Student Honor Code, please see: <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/SCCR/honorcodes/honorcode.php>.

Software Use:

All faculty, staff and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

Campus Helping Resources:

Students experiencing crises or personal problems that interfere with their general well-being are encouraged to utilize the university's counseling resources. The Counseling & Wellness Center provides confidential counseling services at no cost for currently enrolled students. Resources are available on campus for students having personal problems or lacking clear career or academic goals, which interfere with their academic performance.

Each online distance learning program has a process for, and will make every attempt to resolve, student complaints within its academic and administrative departments at the program level. See <http://distance.ufl.edu/student-complaints> for more details.

Services for Students with Disabilities:

The Disability Resource Center coordinates the needed accommodations of students with disabilities. This includes registering disabilities, recommending academic accommodations within the classroom, accessing special adaptive computer equipment, providing interpretation services and mediating faculty-student disability related issues. Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation

Online Course Evaluation Process

Student assessment of instruction is an important part of efforts to improve teaching and learning. At the end of the semester, students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course using a standard set of university and college criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open for students to complete during the last two or three weeks of the semester; students will be notified of the specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results>.
